

Guidance for Child Safety Officers- Position Description

Schools can nominate a senior staff member as a child safety officer to support child safety. In large or multi-campus schools, more than one child safety champion can be nominated.

Child safety officers must have the status and authority to work with and influence others.

The role:

- requires knowledge and professional judgement on child safety and wellbeing
- needs support through ongoing training and mentoring
- may be a suitable development opportunity for aspiring school leaders.

Key responsibilities

Child safety officers work with the school leadership team, teachers, students, volunteers and the school community to create a child safe environment in the school.

Promote child safety culture

- Promote child safety and wellbeing. For example, at staff and parent meetings, through newsletters and staff bulletins.
- Ensure the school's child safety policies and procedures:
  - are current and fit for purpose
  - are publicly accessible
  - are known and implemented.
- Promote a culture of listening to students and families and acting on their child safety concerns.
- Support staff and volunteers to focus on the child safety needs of vulnerable students.

Provide support and guidance

- Be a point of contact for child safety concerns for staff, volunteers and students.
- Provide guidance to students, staff and volunteers on child safety policies and procedures.
- Work with school leadership to respond to child safety incidents.
- Maintain current skills and knowledge to support child safety and wellbeing, including:
  - child-focused complaint processes, reporting obligations and the Four Critical Actions
  - student rights, participation and empowerment
  - Aboriginal cultural safety and inclusive practices to meet students diverse needs
  - child safety risk management including online safety
  - child safety information sharing and record-keeping obligations
  - working with relevant agencies to refer students and families to appropriate support
  - keeping across emerging research and best practice guidance in child safety and wellbeing.

Train and educate

- Provide child safety induction programs for new school staff, volunteers and school council members.
- Provide child safety training for school staff, volunteers and school council members.
- Ensure mandatory reporters complete the annual mandatory reporting training.
- Provide child safety updates and information to staff and volunteers, as needed.

Monitor, review and report

- Record child safety complaints and concerns, and analyse trends as needed
- Coordinate reviews following significant safety incidents and recommend improvements
- Maintain the school's child safety risk register with the school leadership team
- Coordinate child safety policy and practice reviews in consultation with the school community
- Maintain detailed, accurate, secure written records of concerns and referrals
